Peter proposed an excursion to Useppa, a private island off of Captiva that's about a 40 minute boat ride from the South Seas Resort. The proposed date is Friday, March 18 and it would be an all-day affair. The cost of the boat trip is $40 per person plus $5 to park. Details will follow if interest sparks.

Terry Luck announced that to place a polo-shirt order, he needs 10 orders. Members are encouraged to buy a shirt!

Bill Newman informed the club that he and Kenny Taylor will be racing at Sebring on the long track on the weekend of February 13/14. There will be 31 cars in the vintage races with Bill driving his GT6 and Kenny behind the wheel of his TR7. Bill could not image a better way to spend Valentine's Day weekend.

Cecil presented the proposal of a fixed menu offered by Famous Dave's to pick up the pace of the service during our monthly meetings. The proposed menu has been mailed to the group for review.

Jon Liversedge won the 50-50 raffle of $75.

The next meeting will be at Famous Dave's (possibly with the fixed menu) on Tuesday, March 8.
